

ISPAR Meeting 2026 — “Blue Drapes and Red Flags”

8 April 2026 · Antwerp, Belgium

Be part of the next ISPAR meeting in Antwerp!

Join colleagues and experts from across the World for a full-day event dedicated to perioperative allergy. The 2026 edition, “Blue Drapes and Red Flags,” will explore the latest advances in diagnostics, service organization, and communication strategies in perioperative allergy management.

The meeting has been scheduled on the day before the EAACI Drug Hypersensitivity Meeting (DHM) which takes place on 9-11 April 2026. For those interested in attending both, separate registration is required via EAACI for the DHM, but accommodation for both meetings can be booked via the link below.
